

5 APPS FOR PARENTS TO MONITOR THEIR CHILD

One on three teens regret something they did online!

mSpy

The top app used worldwide. Allows for monitoring of multiple activities, who is called, who is texted, which apps are used, number of contacts, phones location, etc.

The Spy Bubble

The jack-of-all-spying trades. Really scares you when you realize any photo shared on-line by you or your kids can be captured by this app!

The Phone Sheriff

While able to monitor activity, it also allow parents to set time limits on your kid's smartphone. This app will shut down and lock the hone when you tell it to!

Mobicip

The middle school level blocks online shopping, gambling, dating, liquor, and chat sites. The high school level blocks content that is adult, sexual, or involves weapons and violence. Good luck with your kid not using a friend's phone.

MamaBear

For parents of new drivers and parents of teens with friends who have had their licenses for 20 minutes, MamaBear will let you know the speed of the vehicle your teen is traveling in. Just don't text them to slow down, OK?
